A Dangerous Man.

Mr. Sumner says that Grant is a bold, bad, dangerous man.—[Newspaper.

"A bold, bad man is General Grant,"
Said Floyd one gloomy night,
As out from Donelson he crept,
And took his hasty flight,
From Pillows trembling lips there came
An echo sounding much the same,
And Buckner thought his chief was right,
Nor longer durst maintain the flight;
And then down came the rebel "bars,"
And from the fort hung stripes and stars.
"That Grant's a dangerous man," said they;
And doubtless think the same to-day.

"A bold, bad man is General Grant,"
Said Beauregard one morn,
As from the haughty traitor's brow
The victor's wreath was torn;
And from the field his legions went,
By orders General Grant had sent.
Then Shiloh's field was ours again,
Despite the host of rebel men,
Who came an army boasting loud,
And went a panic stricken crowd;
For Beauregard and all his men
Perhaps thought Grant was dangerous then,

"A bold bad man is General Grant,"
Said Pemberton one day;
"Entreaties are of no avail,
He will not go away.
A stubborn, mulish, dangerous man!
He wants our rebel hides to tan,"
And still Grant's cannon raked the town
Until the rebel flags came down;
And then our banners, rent and torn,
Were through the streets of Vicksburg borne,"
The "bold, bad man," that glorious "Fourth,"
Sent gladsome tidings to the North.

"A bold, bad man is General Grant!"
And poor Cragg's eyes were dim
Wild tears said he, "I know
Tis useless fighting him,"
And soon the cheers from Grant's brave men
On Lookout's crest told where and when
The rebel general had to run,
And what that "bold, bad man" had done,
"That Grant's a dangerous man!" he said,
As from the field his army fled.

"A bold, bad man is General Grant,"
Said Lee, "that's plain to see;
He must be very bold, indeed,
To think of whipping me,"
Then Petersburg and Richmond fell;
Then Appomattox—maybe—well,
At last our hero's work was done;
The final victory was won,
Perhaps the people may forget
These things, but then, they haven't yet,
They needed then such "dangerous" men.
And think, perhaps, they may again.

"A bold, bad, dangerous man is Grant;"
Jeff Davis thought the same,
When, running of in crinoline,
He to the "last ditch" came,
A Ku Klux's gentle voice was heard,
And—"Grant is dangerous" averred,
It needs must be that this is so,
For all these rebels ought to know.
Then Hall and Tweed—good, honest men—
Say "Grant is bold and bad," and when
Such men declare it, then, forsooth,
Folks know that Sumner tells the truth.

Snarlings of an old Bachelor.

BY HECLA HOLLYWOOD.

They call me an old bachelor, and say that I am gruff do they? Well I suppose it is reasonable enough, but I am sure that if some of the new now devoted husbands were unmarried and possessed the same experience, they would joyfully live a life of single blessedness.

You would "like to know the cause of my remaining a bachelor" would you? That is very easy to tell now, yet there was a time when I would not speak of her for worlds. Now that dull aching pain is gone, and I am free. I never really loved until I was nearly twenty five years old, for at an early age I saw many of the fashionable follies of the fair sex, and heartily condemned anything like coquetry or great affectation. About this time a gentleman moved into our village with an only daughter, he was a doctor and being much from home, his daughter spent the greater part of her time alone wandering in the fields and groves. I think she could really 'find" as the writer says:

——"Tongues in trees, books in running brooks, Sermons on stones and good in everything"

so thoroughly did she seem to enjoy nature.

In her I found my ideal of womanhood, yet she was only fifteen and I was silly enough to think that she would never change. The next year her father thought proper to send her to a "finishing school"—the most detestable institutions ever allowed to exist. They finish their scholars in duplicity and conceit. They give them only a smattering of knowledge. and a great deal of useless pride. Were I the father of forty daughters I would much rather see them grow up in ignorance of the so called "accomplishments" than send one of them to these abominable "Select Schools." Select they are called, but in them we find some of the most illnaulred, decietful and offensive beings that inhabit this ball of ours.

Contact with them is calculated to deaden the finer feelings of our being while it defines the natural inclination to evil; and in my innocent ideal I can plainly show you the effect. She left me, excuse the familiarity, we were almost always together, a simple, loving child, guilless and innocent as an infant. Perfectly ignorant of flattery and coquetry, a devoted lover of the true and beautiful. No vows, to use a common expression, had passed betwixt us, yet each knew the others heart, and words were unnessary. Why dwell longer on her praise.

After the lapse of three years she was pronounced "finished" and allowed to return home. With how much pleasure I anticipated her arrival it is unnecessary to state. She reached home on Friday, and considering our intimate relation in the past, I ventured to call on her on Sunday evening. I did not send up my card, or ask to see her particular, but the family knew as well as I did that the call was for her, yet she never made her appearance!

Disappointed and wounded, I went home, "Is this," thought I, "the meeting I have anticipated so fondly."

The next day I called again, sent up my card and received an invitation to walk into the parlor, Missus would soon be down. I walked in and seated myself and waited one hour, when the door opened and in walked "my lady." I was dumbfoundered. Was that fashion plate my ideal? I recovered after a while, and found that a moving mass of silk, lace, flounces, feathers, paints, powders, hair bark, etc., was the object of my adoration. Her dress disgustingly low necked and short sleeved might have been made for a three year old child but for the length. Her accomlishments consisted, I found, in her ability to produce as many discords on the piano as any of her style to talk fluently about Miss Evaes and other writers of a similar style. Her knowledge of French extended to "je rous aime." Dancing was her forte, and "the girls kid," she waltzed divinely. In fact she had in place of her childlike innocence and simplicity all the acts and duplicity of a coquette. I cannot express all her airs etc., which were perfectly natural of course.

She was "actually buried alive" in the horrid country, wished papa would send her to New Port.

Buried alive indeed. If she loved me half so well as I loved her, would she consider hereself buried when I was with her every day? Ah that moment she saw her power over me, and she did not hesitate to use it. She played with my heart strings as carelessly as she did the silken coil at her waist. Things went on in this way some time. At last I ventured to speak of days gone by. Alas she ignored them entirely. Before "the season" was over I discovered that every principle that had been instilled by a mothers loving advice had been superseded by the "finishing school" nonsense, in other words she jilted me sadly.

Not very sadly either perhaps. It is true I once loved her devotedly, and fondly looked forward to the time when I would call her my own—when she would adorn my home with all the sweet quiet matronly grace of a perfect wife. I could never love that heartless being miscalled woman. Why she never thought of anything except to dress and admire herself.

"That is not true of all" you say. I admit it. I am glad to know that there are some who have more sense than smattering. I "might have loved again" I hear you say; very true indeed, but having been decieved once I prefered to be silent on the subject.

My ideal maried! Oh yes indeed, she is the wife of a prospering merchant who dresses her like a queen. He employs a governess and his little ones know absolutely nothing about their mother. Now that would not suit me. I would not make a drudge of my wife, yet her children are her particular care, to the cultivation of whose minds she should give particular attention.

I should want a true woman, intelligent, refined, amiable and noble, whose only ambition would be to be loved by her husband and family, not a haughty belle, proud to be admired by others in spite of her marriage ties.

I sometimes pity young men when I see them about to assume the matrimonial halter. Perhaps some of the ladies deserve pity too, I dare say they do, yet a wife's influence over the husband is very great.

These, sir, are my reasons for remaining single. I "loved, not wisely, but too well." This I think enough to make one "snarl."

Do you know what a certain writer says about men and maidens! Listen then.

"Men are April when they woo, December when they wed.—Maids are May when they are maids, but the sky changes when they are wives."

Dare I trust myself, with that sentence before my eyes. What marry an angel and find her to be a——shrew? It would be the death of me I know. I firmly believe that

"No one so accursed by fate,
No one so utterly desolate,
But some heart though unknown,
Responds unto his own."

It would be anything but heavenly to find that her heart responded to your money but some other mans heart, I think, and getting the responsive one is the task.

Yes, I am a growling, snarling old bachelor in his Shakesperean age, once the "nicest beau and best catch in town," I am now ignored entirely, and to confess the truth much to my satisfaction.

Pardon me, if I drop the veil over the past forever, for "thou has the secret of my heart."

Forgive, be generous and depart.

Flag Presentation to the G. U. O. O. F. of Elizabeth City N. C.

On the 12th inst., at the Aniversary Celebration of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows in this city, a flag gotten up by the wives and daughters of the members of the Order, was presented in the following neat address by Miss Sarah Fearing:

Ladies, Genelemen and Odd Fellows: The occasion which calls us together is an interesting one. By invitation I humbly appear before you for the purpose of presenting this beautiful banner, upon which are engraved the great principles of Universal Brotherhood, Friendship, Love, and Truth, to all mankind. This should not only be enforced by precept, but by example; for in so-doing, benevolence will be dispensed, with unsparing hand to the brotherhood; the sufferings of the afflicted, the sigh's of the widow, and the tears of the orphan, will be met with sympathy, and soothed, and releived by the kindly feelings of your fraternity. Your vows are solemn—your responsibilities are great—your duties are many. But in the performance of these duties your consolation will be great. Ever bear in mind, that the Eternal Allseeing Eye rests upon you, and that in the discharge of your duties, however great, the Eternal Allpowerful arm is ever outstretched to help and to sustain you. You profess Friendship and Love for all mankind. Let me say carry Truth ever stamped on your foreheads. Yours is indeed a noble calling. Worthy aye thrice worthy is it of all your arduous labors and devoted care. Take courage then and accept this beautiful banner. Unfurl it to the breeze, so that the eye of all may behold its beautiful lessons, and see its purity. Never let it become sullied by any unworthy act. Remember it retains its power, only so long as its purity is maintained. Let your eyes be never turned away from the great lessons here taught. Let not your hands be idle. Your prayers never cease. Then will your hope be forever bright, and the Grand Master above will bring about that period, when universal Love shall be the ruling principle among all men. Then "peace shal flow as a rever." Then "men shall beat their swords into plow-shares, and their spears into pruning hooks." Then "shall the Lion and the Lamb lie down together, and a little child shall lead them."

In conclusion, it gives me great pleasure to say to our friends who have honored us on this occasion, with their sunny smiles, and approving countenance, that we all believe, no man can be a true Odd Fellow, who is not a devoted husband a kind father, an obedient son, or faithful constant lover.

The reply was made by Charles S. Davis in the following words:

Ladies, Gentlemen and Brothers: There are times when language refuses to express the feelings and emotions of the heart; when words are mere empty sounds, which grate harshly on the ear. Emotion does not always find relief in utterence, and the deep feelings of the soul are not communicated in spoken language. I have no words to express the deep gratitude I feel for the kind words spoken by the fair speaker. It is one of the happiest days of my life. We are not insensible to this high honor. This is indeed a beautiful emblem or Banner and we promise to protect it with an honest pride. The motive, the spirit, the frank open-hearted sentiment which prompted this memento makes it to us one of priceless value. It is said by some "to care not for women." They know not. Our motto is to protect the widow, bury the dead, and care for orphans. Some object that we are secret in our order. This can be no objection. We claim it as the best recommendation. Its secrecy is the mystic tie that binds us together in indissoluble brotherhood, prompting us to do deeds of virtue and benevolence. It entwines itself around our fraternity like the yet invisible breeze that at summer noontide fans our burning forehead and gladdening our hearts with freshness and purity. Odd Fellowship is the handmaid of virtue and religion, and must flourish. It calls into life and action the best and holiest feelings of our nature, and success must crown its efforts. Trophies of this order are the deeds of charity, and the proud achievements of lives spent in the cause of benevolence and virtue. They are unsullied by crime and unstained by a tear, unless it be the tear of gratitude and joy. I will say more, the lessons taught to every Odd Fellow is based on Friendship, Love and Truth. They teach us that we are all Brethren of the same great family; that we are bone of the same bone and flesh of the same flesh—Sons of the same father, and travelers through the same world of trouble, misery and woe, alike needing the sympathies and aid of our brethren. They remind us that the bounties of Providence were not given to be squandered in riotous living or in idle extravagance, but for the general good of all mankind. They remind us too, that man is but a steward of God's bounty, and that for the faithful execution of that stewardship, he must ere long render a strict and impartial account.

The army of friendship is gathering its men
From mountain and valley, from hill top and glen
Friendship's our motto, we are gallant and strong,
Come join our order, and go marching along.

Every Odd Fellow is required to battle against vice in all its forms, and live up to the principles found in the precepts of our order. What can afford a band of brothers more heartfelt pleasure than to know that they have been in some measure instrumental in the improved condition of the community in which they live, or have been the means of relieving the wants of many of the destitute by which they are surrounded, that the ministration of the order of Odd Fellowship, though silent and unseen, never attended by pomp or ostentation on the part of its members, have often assuaged the grief or mitigated the pangs of the suffering widow and orphan; and that the last sad duty of man to his fellow man has been performed with decency and due solemnity.

These are the duties of Odd Fellowship. Let it, then be the especial duty of each and every member, to faithfully perform his part of the sacred work, fulfilling thereby the requirements of our order. I will not detain you any longer. Ladies we thank you for the beautiful words you have so eloquently uttered, and for the kind fraternal feelings you have so forcibly expressed. Once more allow me to return our earnest, sincere and heartfelt thanks. May you receive a rich reward in our own hearts, and may your future lives be as peaceful and happy as they are now useful and honored.

Miscellaneous.

The Renomination of Grant.

Consider for one moment how this republic would have presented itself to the sober judges of a century hence had the people in obedience only to the envious and disappointed selfishness of Gen. Grant's enemies permitted its great benefactor to go into dishonored retirement. Should Washington be rewarded with a second term; should Jackson and Lincoln be twice made President, and Grant, to whom the country owes more than to all the others combined, be shoved aside with neglect and contempt? Then the republic, indeed, would have shown its ingratitude, not merely to him, but to every defender of the nation living, and to the memory of every patriot who gave to his country his life. The very bones of the "sheeted regiments," in their places, who died for the Union, would have stirred in their narrow beds, and the Nemesis of nations, at some future time, when the sacrifice of patriotic life shall again be demanded in the service of country, would declare that the men of this age and their descendants are unworthy to possess a country.

The renomination of Gen. Grant, and his certain re-election, will be simply a declaration by this people that the principles for which so much blood and treasure have been expended, are still precious in their sight.—Brooklyn Union.

The People's Stamp of Valuable.—

The Government endorsement, which legalizes the sale of Plantation Bitters, is not the only stamp affixed to that fomous Vegetable Tonic. It bears, in addition to that official sanction, the still more valuable stamp fo public Approbation. This inestimable voucher of its rare properities as a Tonic, Corrective and Alterative, is of much earlier date than the Government credential; for millions of sick persons had pronounced it the Grant Specific of the Age long before Congress though of taxing proprietary medicines. It is unnecessary to repeat, in detail, the properties of this wonderful Vegetable Invigorant. The best reference that can be offered to those who desire the full particulars of its virtues, is the General Public. Ask those who have tried it as a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, bilousness, intermittent fevers, nervous, debility, rheumatism, sea sickness, low spirits, or loss of vital power! what Plantation Bitters has done for them, and be governed by the responds they make to your inquiries.

Mr. Nasby Goes to a County in Southern Indiana to Assist in Fixing up the Coalition Between the Democrats and Liberal Republicans.

[From the Toledo Blade.]

CONFEDERATE X ROADS, (wich is in the State uv Kentucky,) Joon 8, 1872.

I wuz invited to go to a county in Southern Indiana, in wich I hed some friends, and assist in fixin the coalishun betwixt the Democracy and the Liberal Republikins, that they mite march to victory without question. I didn't like to leave the Corners. The Spring time hez come agin, gentle Anne, and it is pleasant here. The trees is out into blossom, the little birds is liftin up their voices harmoniously, the weather is warm enuff to go barefooted, and the stoop in front uv Bascom's is never so pleasant to sleep upon ez now. The warmth disposes yoo to slumber, and the flies aint come yit to murder it. Likker never tastes ez well in Kentucky ez in Joon. But when did I ever hesitate to go where dootp calls? I went.

The county hez alluz bin slitely Republikin; that is, Republikin by perhaps two hundred majority; just enuff to let our people git a site at the promised land without ever entering into it. The Liberal movement took so well there that it become a certain thing that of the Democrisy and the Republikin bolters cood only pull together, triumph wuz asshoored. But, I thought to myself, this can't possibly be. It will go well enuff till they come to makin a platform, and then they'll split into fragments. There is too hefty a difference atween the Ingeany Dimocrat and Republiken—a difference based on principles—to admit uv a hope that they kin ever pull troo together. But I determined to do my best and smooth things so ez to make agreement ez easy ez possible.

I advised, to wunst, that an informal consultashun be held, and that six representative men from the Democratic party, and six from the Republikin party who had gone over to Greeley, should be appointed, and empowered to fix everything connected with the campane. The caucus was held, and the followin wuz them as wuz appointed to arrange the detale:

Democrats—Smith, Brown, O'Shaughnessy, Peters and Blodgett.

Liberal Republikins—Jones, Thompson, Adams Dodder, Potter and Muggins.

These gentlemen met the some afternoon uv their appointment, and I acted as a sort uv umpire, that there might be order and system observed.

Mr. Smith (Dem.) remarked that the fust thing in order wood be to fix the platform uv principles in sich a way that both wings uv the new party cood stand onto it. Without a platform to stand onto, no Democrat cood go into a campane with any feelin uv safety. He wood propose the discussion uv the different ishoos afore the people. It wood be necessary, uv course, to whittle down in one spot, and swell out in another, to git the principles adapted to the slitely diverse idees uv men wich hadn't kept steps together, ez it were, and he wood sejest that Yooniversal Amnesty be first discust.

"Now," sez I to myself, "the first installment uv trouble is onto." But it wusn't.

The other eleven hed bin yawnin fearfully doorin this orashun, but they each choked off their respective yawns long enuff to exclaim in korus:

"O, blarst Yooniversal Amnesty! There ain't no doubt but wat we shel all agree on that pint! Go on!"

I wuz delited to see them ruff pints got over so easy.

"Wat shel we do with the suffrage question?" asked Mr. Smith.

"Blarst the suffarage question!" exclamed the eleven with one voice. "We shel hev no trouble with that!"

"The tariff—"

OUR FOURTH VOLUME.

With this issue the Fourth Volume of the NORTH CAROLINIAN begins. How time passes, aye, and what advancement has been made in this City and the surrounding country since our first number appeared! When we compare to day—its life and activity and improvements with the condition existing three short years ago we can scarcely realize the change. Fully appreciating the situation, the NORTH CAROLINIAN at once identified itself with the needs and wants of the people and country, took an active part in every movement intended to promote the public weal, and, in its humble way, has aided every enterprize designed to foster the material interests of all. Earnest in its convictions, frank in their avowal, yet tolerant towards those honestly differing, it has been fortunate in making hosts of friends and has so far won public confidence as to rally to its support influential and leading men of all parties. They acknowledge its usefulness—even those not endorsing its political creed, feeling that it is doing a work for this section no other agency can, at this time, accomplish, and hence they rejoice to see it one of the "fixed institutions" of our City and section.

Our three years record as a journalist is now before this people. If we have wronged any one in a single line we have written or published, or if any have been causelessly wounded by what our sense of duty as a faithful public journalist has constrained us to say or do, we take this occasion to declare that it was neither personal nor intentional, and that we ever stand ready to make the amende honorable when properly made acquainted with the fact.

We desire to begin our new year in a fair business way. We would be glad to have all who have journeyed with us thus far to continue to the end—or at least another year. We will not only try to give them full value for their money, but we hope to be able to instruct, interest and benefit them in the bargain But we propose being just to ourself as well as honorable to our patrons, and hence we are lopping off the dead weights—those who have allowed their unpaid subscriptions to run lo! these two and three years! While we take great pleasure in our work it is marred just a little when we look over our books and find that too many have been reaping the benefits without bearing any of the burthens. We much prefer working for those who appreciate our labors enough to respond in the way recognized among fair dealing men.

We begin our new volume with congratulations on the past and well assured hopes for the future. The native and "to the manner born" has been made to realize that "there is life in the old land yet," the adopted citizen is encouraged to know that labor and capital properly expended and directed will produce an abundant return, and we are realizing that our efforts have not been in vain.

THE COMING CROPS.

We have been examining our exchanges from the North, the East and the West as well as from our own section in order to obtain reliable information respecting the crops, and the result is not as discouraging as we at one time feared. We had heard so much about "Winter Killed Wheat" that we were led to believe the prospect rather serious, but our examinations have satisfied us that while there was a good deal of Winter Wheat killed during the season there is no reason for anticipating anything resembling a flour famine.

Of the great grain-bearing States Wisconsin, Iowa, and Minnesota do not sow very much winter-wheat, and there is every reason to expect that the spring-planted wheat will make a favorable show at harvest-time. From Illinois the reports of winter-wheat are good: from Michigan, poor; from Ohio and Pennsylvania, fair; from Indiana, good; and from California, very good. The reports from the Southern States are favorable. From Europe the accounts are not so favorable for the growing crops. The indications are that the hay-crop will not be very abundant, but it is hoped that it will be far better than last year. The rains have probably insured its better quality, The South reports more acres in cotton, and the condition of the growing crops is a fair average. The cut-worm is doing its best to injure the corn crop in some sections, but the reports are generally favorable, and we may expect a reasonably good crop. Fruits are likely to be rather short of a first-class yield in this vicinity. At the West there is promise of a rather extraordinary crop, though it is early to predict what the season may bring forth. From California and the South the news is encouraging.

A SAFE CURRENCY SECURED BY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

How many of our readers consider the advantage and benefits of our present system of National Banks over the old plan, and especially of its value to the people and its great aid to commerce. Who does not recollect the nuisance and loss to the travelling public of an irresponsible State Bank currency, whose value changed not only from day to day but between State lines? Who has escaped the innumerable robberies by counterfeits (a counterfeit detector being a necessity to every business man) by broken banks; by old banks revived; by new ones started by scoundrels who paid black-mail to the counterfeit detector publishers to rate them good until their currency had gained circulation? Who does not know of the frightful disasters of 1827 and 1857—and the ever recurring minor crises, of a Bank system which promised to redeem in gold when no one cared for it, but which always suspended payments when the gold was wanted. To whom is the country and the people indebted for this improvement? To the Republican party. Had it devised no other measure in behalf of general business prosperity, this great unifying act alone would entitle it to universal gratitude.

PERQUIMANS COUNTY.

The Republicans of Perquimans are at work. They are united and in excellent spirits. Their county ticket is a capital one. It was selected with wisdom and gives entire satisfaction. J. R. DARDEN was renominated for the Legislature. He made an honorable record and the party felt it right to endorse him by a renomination. He not only proved himself to be a consistent Republican but he was faithful to the interests of his constituents. The balance of the ticket is likewise composed of some of the best men of the county. They are as follows: For Sheriff, Henry White; for Treasurer, Josiah Nicholson; for Register of Deeds, U. W. Speight; for Coroner, Willis H. Bagley; for Surveyor, Thos. E. Winslow; and for Commissioners Jeptha White, Edward C. Albertson, Alfred Newby, Elijah Peele and Edward Felton. With such a ticket Perquimans is safe for an increased majority.

DON'T TRUST THEM.

That the Democrats, when they asked for office and power two years ago, promised economy and reform and legislation for the public interests, the people well remember: that they failed to redeem their solemn pledges the people know. It has ever been so. They always promis much and just as often perform but little. Their whole history is marked with broken pledges. With such a record, who can trust them?

And yet to-day they are playing the same old harp, practicing the music they understand so well. They are profuse in earnest professions, warming up with love for the "dear people" and promising wonderful things if elected! But who believes them? A leopard can't change its spots and a democratic politician won't fulfil his promises.

Poor men of North Carolina! to whom are you indebted for the beneficent Homestead and Personal Property exemptions you now enjoy? Answer, to the Republican party. Your only safety is in voting to keep that party in power.

HERTFORD COUNTY.

The news from Hertford County is cheering. The Republican campfires are lighted and burning brightly. The ticket nominated is a good and strong one, The nominee for the Legislature, JAMES SHARPE is well received and popular. He is a gentleman af considerable ability. He belongs to one of the best families of the State and was an old Union HENRY CLAY WHIG. The balance of the ticket is likewise satisfactory. They are for Sheriff—Isaac Pipkin; for Coroner—B. W. Barrem; for Treasurer—John A. Vann; for Register of Deeds—J. M. Trader; for Surveyor—T. E. Vann; for County Commissioners—Samuel D. Winborn, Levi S. Danis, Thomas E. Snipes, Wm. B. Alexder, Rev. Wm. Reid.

There will be a good report from Hertford in August.

DEMOCRATIC WARNING.

The Richmond Enquirer is a Democratic journal of the straightest faith and antecedents. It warns the Democracy that if the Baltimore Convention accepts the Cincinnati nominations the election of Gen. GRANT is a foregone conclusion. The blank dismay of these Democrats of the old school as they see each successive Democratic Convention captured and bagged by the "Greeleyites" is at once pitable and ludicrous. They are just begining to realize how far the Democratic party has been demoralized by accepting for leaders the broken down politicians who have sloughed off from the Republican party at each of its purifications. They are now preparing to swallow a large installment of "Liberal Republicans," alias disappointed office seekers. Let us see how far the rank and file of the party will stand it.

SOMETHING FOR POOR MEN TO PONDER OVER!

The Republican Party of North Carolina secured a homestead to every family in the State, by a beneficent provision in the Constitution, of the value of Fifteen Hundred Dollars which cannot be taken away. It will remain in force and as a protection to poor men unless the Democratic party gets into power and repeals it.

The Republican Party of the nation, through its Republican Congress, has so amended the Bankrupt law, as to give a debtor who shall be forced into bankruptcy, the present homestead. Thus the Republican party has not only given every family a homestead exemption but has secured it against all contingencies. Let every poor man ponder these things.

THE PROSPECT IN BERTIE.

We have an encouraging report from Bertie. Everything is working well. The Republicans are in earnest and mean to carry the county by an increased majority. The County ticket is as follows:

For Legislature—F. C. Miller: For County Commissioners—Wm. T. Ward, D. D. Cale, John W. Heckstall, Wright Cherry and Cado Mountaine; For Treasurer—John G. Mitchel; For Sheriff—E. W. Bell; For Register of Deeds—B. F. King; For Coroner—Bryant Lee; For Constable at large—John Williams.

Let it have an earnest support.

It now looks quite probable that GREELEY will be endorsed at Baltimore. Very well. That destroys the Democratic party, and more certainly insures the election of GRANT. No where in the country will GREELEY weaken the Republicans. Of all his old friends and admirers not one in a thousand have followed him in his pilgrimage to the Democratic temple, and as for the Democrats, among the masses at least three fourths of them are opposed to his nomination, and in the event that he is endorsed at Baltimore, at least one fifth of the party will repudiate at the polls what they cannot but consider a base betrayal of their principles and organization.

Judge A. S. Merrimon the Conservative-Democratic candidate for Governor, never took a drink of whiskey or brandy, never used tobacco, never swore or used an oath, and knows not one card from another.—Raleigh News.

So far good for MERRIMON. But then did he not indict, in Yancy county, the wives and daughters of Confederate soldiers who were in the trenches around Richmond and Petersburg, for bursting into a Confederate tithing house, and taking therefrom sufficient grain to keep themselves and their children from starving? And did he not refuse to quash the indictment against them until he got his fees of four dollars in each case?

Judge MERRIMON is the Democratic candidate, for Governor. In 1868 he stumped the the State against our present Constitution. On the other hand TOD R. CALDWELL, the Republican candidate stumped the State for the Constitution. Had Judge MERRIMON succeeded, where would the poor men of North Carolina have been? Think of this when you come to vote. CALDWELL was your friend then. He has not changed.

When Gov. CALDWELL declined perjuring himself by refusing to sign what he knew to be an unconstitutional bill last year the Democrats abused him for it. The people sustained him at the ballot box. The Democrats are now repeating their abuse. The people will again vindicate him at the polls.

SXX Robbins was nominated for Congress in the 7th District, and virtuous Jeems Leach, who now stands indicted in the Circuit Court of the U. S., for Ku Kluxing, is the Standard bearer in the 5th District. Is comment needed?

We learn that Gen. ALLEN RUTHERFORD, third Auditor, is making great headway in stating the accounts of the Southern claimants. Quite a number have already been passed.

Gov. CALDWELL never shrinks from duty. He is filling the Executive office with ability and satisfaction to the people. They propose keeping him there another term.

There has been a bolt from the GREELEY movement and nomination. A number of leading gentlemen from some twenty States met in New York last week and after consultation presented the name of Hon. WM. S. GROESBECK, of Ohio, for President, and FREDERICK LAW OLMSTEAD, of New York, for Vice President.

This is not the first time the two candidates for Governor were before the people for office. TOD R. CALDWELL never was defeated; A. S. MERRIMAN never was elected! It will be so again.

The Grant and Wilson ticket is the worst that has ever been presented to the suffrages of the American people. Chicago Times.

Yes, it is the worst—for the Democratic party.

THE present Administration has removed all revenue taxation from the necessaries of life used by the masses. It never forgets the best interests of the people.

A New York publisher is advertising Horace Greeley's "March." If we mistake not it bears a strong resemblance to "Jordan am a hard road to trabble."

GEORGE ALFRED TOWNSEND, of Kentucky, has taken to writing GREELEY poetry. It is "pretty tough." But "anything to beat GRANT."

Hon. R. P. DICK, having qualified as United States Judge of the Western District, has left the Supreme Court bench.

A new brand of whiskey has just been introduced. It is called "Greely Whiskey." Exchange.

Oh! "anything to beat GRANT."

New Books, Periodicals, &c.

In the July number of Lippincott's Magazine there is an article on "Sunstroke," which is just in season. The writer, Dr. H. C. Wood, gives a record of many experiments made by himself, and he declares that external heat is the cause of sunstroke, and that the internal heat produces directly all the symptoms Sunstroke may occur in cloudy weather as readily as it occurs in clear weather. If the air is heated and the body hot, the disease will take hold of man. As heat is the cause of sunstroke, Dr. Wood argues that the simplest and safest remedy is to extract the heat from the body as quickly as possible. And as a convenient extractor, he recommends a cold water bath. There should be no delay in extending relief to the stricken one, as here delay is fatal. To guard against a prostrating attack, Dr. Wood remarks that the body must be kept as cool as possible Drink freely of water, and endeavor to perspire generously. Wear loose clothing, and keep in the hat a sponge saturated with cold water. The current number of Lippincott's Magazine contains many readable articles. "Crumbs from the Rhineland," by Alice Gray, and "Travels in the Air," are charmingly illustrated. Edward A. Pollard writes, in his vigorous style, "A History of the Fourth of July," a subject that one would think is worn threadbare.

The sensation article in the July Galaxy is "Tammuz and the Mound Builders." The writer attemps to prove that the statue exhumed in October, 1869, on the banks of the Onondaga River, New York, and commonly known as the Cardiff Giant, is of ancient origin. Upon the right arm of the statue the writer discovered characters which he pronounces Phœnician, and which he deciphers as reading: "Lord Tammuz of the Heavens. The Baal." It is argued that at some distant period, the great statue was brought in the ship of Tarshish across the Sea of Azl, and that the final battle of Onondaga determined the fate of the Northeastern mound builders. They were crushed by the Tartar nomads of the Northwest, and the statue, lying in its resting-place, was lightly covered with twings and flowers, and then with gravel. "The tree under whose shadows it had reposed was cursed to fall with branches extending over and protecting the slightly-raised mound. Here it was probably left for its Winter burial, looking toward a resurrection in the Spring. Passing centuries have laid over both mound and tree an alluvial deposit, the depth of which, when calculated with all the data accurate topographical investigation alone can give, may yield a measure of time." In view of the fact that there are men alive who claim that they made this Cardiff giant, and buried it on the banks of the Onondaga, we are slightly bewildered by this learned dissertation on Lord Tammuz of the Heavens. If the whole thing is intended as a joke, it certainly is the most solemn joke we ever came across. This sensation article will make the July number of Galaxy in great demand.

The July Atlantic is a strong number The explanation, "Why Semmes of the Alabama Was Not Tried," written by John A. Bolles, will attract much attention. Mr. Bolles, in the opening pages, strongly condemns the naval career of Admiral Semmes; but he is forced to concede in the end the policy of the Confederate commander was not exceptional, He destroyed the merchant marine; but so did the officers of the Federal navy, acting under the orders of President Madison, destroy the English vessels captured, on the ground that this was the most effective way to cripple the enemy. Numerous precedents are given, and in the face of these precedents, Mr. Bolles contends that it would have been inconsistent to try Semmes as a pirate. The question, as presented by Mr. Bolles, is interesting in view of the present excitement in regard to the settlement or the Alabama Claims. The political writer in the Atlantic gives Mr. Greeley a slap in the face. He says he is not ardent for Grant, but that he prefers the soldier to the philosopher. "The Poet at the Breakfast Table," as usual is good, and Mr. Parton's descriptions of "Jefferson a Reformer of Old Virginia," is well done.

Scribner's Monthly, for July, opens with a splendidly illustrated article on West Point, written by Benson J. Lossing. Fanny Howell pictures for us "Woman as a Smuggler and Woman as a Detective." The writer shows how the high duties on imported goods tempts women to smuggle these goods into the country. The stiff tariff, it seems, is demoralizing even to the fair partners of our bed and board. And here we have another argument in favor of free trade, for it is not safe to corrupt those who have the rearing and training of our children. If all mothers become smugglers, in time our youth will be taught to look upon smuggling as a virtuous art. "As Others See Us," is a clever satire by Burt G. Wilder. It holds up before the animal world the inconsistencies of man.

Correspondence.

Republican Meeting in Martin.

The Republicans of Martin county assembled at the Court House in Williamston on the 15th inst., for the purpose of nominating county officers and a candidate for the next Legislature. The Convention was called to order by selecting J. J. Smith, as Chairman, Jas H. Parisher Secretary.

On taking the chair, Dr. Smith addressed the Convention in a very appropriate manner, telling them the great importance of selecting good and suitable men for candidates. His remarks were very appropiate for the occasion, urging the Republicans to sustain their party.

A Committee composed of delegates from each township was appointed by the chair, which returned, after an absence of a short time, and presented the following persons as candidates:

For House of Representatives—John R. Mizzell.
For Treasurer—John Watts.
For Sheriff—W. W. Moore.
For Register of Deeds—W. A. Johnson.
For Coroner—Merrick Gray.
For Surveyor—C. H. Ange.
For County Commissioners—P. W. Everett, A. A. Crookston, Abner Eason, J. J. Smith and Wm. Pogerson.

All of whom were unanimously endorsed by the Convention.

After which Dr. J. J. Smith was called on for a speech, who responded and entertained the Convention in a very able and learned discourse of one long hour, by telling the people among other things that the only party in this country was the great National Republican party that the Democratic party was dead and buried, and he had been called upon to perform a sad but pleasant duty, to preach its funeral, which he had done. The Doctor is a thorough-going Republican and made a telling speech, the fruits of which will be plainly seen in August next.

J. J. Martin, esq., was then called upon who made an eloquent and able speech in defence of Gov. Caldwell and the Republican party, by telling them that the people of North Carolina were in a great degree indebted to Gov. Caldwell for the maintenance of the Constitution in defending the call for a Convention last summer, that he stood as an insurmountable barrier, between the rights of the people and violators of law, and for that act alone, if for no other reason, the law-loving and abiding people of North Carolina will say August next, "we want him our next Governor."

Mr Martin drew quite a distinction between Governor Caldwell and Judge Merimon; the former endeavoring to maintain the homestead and rights of poor people, while the latter endeavored to get the homestead in the Supreme Court of the United States, evidently to the injury of the poor man. Mr. Martin argued that it was the duty of every man to vote for Tod. R. Caldwell, and be sure to scratch none, but "go the whole hog."

Letter of Acceptance of Senator Wilson.

WASHINGTON, June 14th, 1872.

To HON. THOMAS SETTLE and others. President and Vice-President of the National Republican Convention, held at Philadelphia on the 5th and 6th of the present month:

GENTLEMEN: Your note of the 10th inst., conveying to me the action of the Convention in placing my name in nomination for the office of Vive-President of the United States, is before me. I need not give you the assurance of my grateful appreciation of the high honor conferred upon me by this action of the fifth National Convention of the Republican Party. Sixteen years ago, in the same city, was held the first meeting of the men who amid the darkness and doubts of that hour of slave-holding ascendancy and aggression, had assembled in National Convention to confer with each other on the exigencies to which that fearful domination had brought their country. After full conference, the highest point of resolve they could reach, the most they dared to recommend, was the avowed purpose to prohibit the existance of slavery in the Territori'. Last week the same party met by its representatives from thirty-seven States and ten Territories, at the same centre of wealth, intelligence and power, to review the past, take note of the present, and indicate its line of action for the future. As typical facts, headlands of the nation's recent history, there sat on its platform, taking prominent and honorable part in its proceedings, admitted on terms of perfect equality to the leading hotels of the city, not only the colored representatives of the race which were ten years before in abject slavery, but one of the oldest and most prominent of the once despised abolitionists, to whom was accorded as to no other the warmest demonstrations of popular regard and esteem, and ovation. Not to him alone, but to the cause he had so ably and for so many years represented, and to the men and women, living and dead, who had toiled through long years of obloquy and self sacrifice for the glorious fruition of that hour. It hardly needed the brilliant summary of its platform to set forth its illustrious acheivements. The very presence of those men was alone significant of the victories already achieved, the progress already made, and the great distance which the nation had traveled between the years 1856 and 1872. But grand as has been its record, the Republican party rests not on its past alone. It looks to the future, and grapples with its problems of duty and of danger. It proposes as objects of its immediate accomplishment "Complete liberty and exact equality for all; the enforcement of the recent amendments to the National Constitution; reform in the civil service: the national domain set apart for homes for the people; the adjustment of duties on imports so as to secure remunerative wages to labor; the extension of bounties to all soldiers and sailors, who, in the line of duty became disabled; the continual and careful encouragement and protection of voluntary immigration, and the guarding with zealous care the rights of adopted citizens: the abolition of the franking privilege and the speedy reduction of the rates of postage; the reduction of the national debt and the rates of interest, and the resumption as specie payment; the encouragement of American commerce and shipbuilding; the suppression of violence and the protection of the ballot-box." It also placed on record the opinions and purposes of the party, in favor of amnesty, against all forms of repudiation, and indorsed the humane and peaceful policy of the Administration in regard to the Indians. But while clearly defining and distinctly announcing the policy of the Republican party on these questions of practical legislation and administration, the convention did not ignore the great social problems which are pressing their claims for solution, and which demand the most careful study and wise consideration. Foremost stands the labor question. Concerning the relations of capital and labor, the Republican party accepts the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure the full protection and the amplest field for capital, and for labor, the creation of capital, the largest opportunities, and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization. To woman, too, and her new demands, it extends the hand of grateful recognition; and proffers its most respectful inquiry. It recognizes her noble devotion to country and freedom, welcomes her admission to wider fields of usefulness, and commends her demands for additional rights, to the calm and careful consideration of the nation.

To guard well what has already been secured, to work out faithfully and wisely what is now in hand, and to consider the questions which are looming up to view but a little way before us, the Republican party is to-day what it was in the gloomy years of slavery, rebellion and reconstruction, a national necessity. It appeals, therefore, for support to the patriotic and liberty-loving, to the just and humane, to all who would dignify labor, to all who would educate, elevate and lighten the burdens of the sens and daughters of toil. With its great record the work still to be done under the great soldier whose historic renown and whose successful Administration for the last three years begat such popular confidence, the Republican party may confidently—in the language of the convention you represent, start on a new march to victory.

Having accepted, thirty-six years ago, the distinguishing Doctrines of the Republican party of to-day; having during years of that period for their advancement subordinated all other issues acting in and cooperating with political organizations with whose leading doctrines I sometimes had neither sympathy nor belief; having labored incessantly for many years to found and build up the Republican party, and having, during its existence, taken an humble part in its grand work, I gratefully accept the nomination thus tendered, and shall endeavor, if it shall be ratified by the people, faithfully to perform the duties it imposes. Respectfully yours,

(Signed), HENRY WILSON.

THIS JOURNAL is now thoroughly identified with the greatest political necessity of the hour—uncompromising warfare against all forms of corruption, whether in national or local government. For years past the TIMES has been exposing the demoralizing schemes of self-interested politicians, and its recent warfare upon the Tammany Democrats has been received with universal approval. It has adhered to the pledge given in its original prospectus, more than twenty years ago, that the public should be truly represented, and their interests faithfully guarded through its columns. Its record has been pure and honorable, and she highest aim its proprietors is to render it more and more worthy of its past history, and of the confidence which the public repose in it. Two out of three of the original proprietors still direct its policy, and guid it on all public questions. They purpose that the TIMES shall continue to keep clear of all narrow and unworthy influences and cliques, and aim to represent the great body of the public, as distinguished from personal factions. It occupies a perfectly independent posions, and is free to speak the truth on all supiects and about all men. Its greatly increased circulation throughout the country adds to its power and influences. ☞ We stand corrected. Our reporter got the name of our Greeley friend RADFORD of Rose Dale confounded with that of BRADFORD of this place. It was the latter, instead of the former who received the Democratic nomination for Co. Treasurer. It was D. B. BRADFORD, the enterprizing Road Street Merchant upon whom the empty honor was conferred, for of course the Republicans will elect their man.

☞ Post Master RADFORD, of Rose Dale, writes us as follows:

I am pleased to state that the receipts at this office have greatly increased since it was established. We take 192 papers besides selling and cancelling about twenty five dollars worth of stamps per quarter. It would be well to state that we commenced patronizing the press by taking 25 copies of the NORTH CAROLINIAN and from that day to the present everything has gone lovely.

Let him see to it that our list at his office is increased and we can assure him that everything will continue to be "lovely."

☞ There is not a town in this whole Congressional District that does not contain enough talent, learning and skill to organize and carry on, with a reasonable degree of success, a Literaray Society. When properly conducted such Societies are productive of vast benefit. The debates, essays, etc., which compose their exercises always produce a degree of excitement and a desire for intellectual improvement in the minds of both actors and hearers. Mind is brought in contact with mind and thereby sharpened. Ideas, new to some, are advanced by others; the young are induced to exert themselves in order to equal, and if possible, surpass their seniors, and these are stimulated to further investigation and improvement. It is true that the literary character of such exercises may not always be of the highest order. It is not to be expected that beginners will compose and debate as well as those ripe with experience. ☞In order to better accommodate our Northern mails, we have changed our publication day from Thursday morning to Wednesday evening.

☞A correspondent writes us to tell her "What is prayer?" The exact phraseology used by the Theologists in defining it we do not know. Our Dictionary says it is "the act of asking with earnestness or zeal; entreaty; supplication; request; petition; suit." But we think the definition given by the little deaf and dumb girl quite as correct. A lady asked her to write her idea of prayer on a slate. She took the pencil and wrote:—"Prayer is the wish of the heart." She could neither hear nor speak, consequently had never said nor heard a prayer, and yet she was able to give, what we believe to be, the true answer to the question.

☞ "A Friend of Education" wants our opinion upon the subject of "lazy teachers." We refrain from giving full expression of what we think about it. A lazy teacher is of all abominations the most abominable; and yet the world has examples of men who think it is easier to cultivate mind than potatoes; and they have exchanged the plow for the birchen sceptre, and have set about the work in their own peculiar way. In the economy of bees, it is necessary to have drones, but the moment their destiny is fulfilled, they are killed and put out of the hive. While it might not be quite Christian to act the same way toward the drones in the great human bee hive, do let something be done to keep them out of the school room.

☞ We have no wish to throw cold water on the efforts of the Democratic leaders to further the Greeley movement in this county and District. Oh no! for in the first place they are personally such an amiable, courteous, agreeable set of fellows that our journalistic heart goes out to them and feels sorry when they are discouraged in any laudable enterprize; and secondly, we rather desire the thing to succeed—that is in getting unequivocal, un-back-out-able Democratic endorsement, for that would be making use of the rank and file to kill—no, it is already dead, but in burying the inanimate carcass of the Democratic party. So let the "white hat" be put on and the procession march to the—funeral. We wouldn't prevent it if we could.

☞ The meeting of the Stockholders of the Albemarle Agricultural Society on Thursday last was pretty well attended. By the proceedings published in another column, it will be seen that W. W. KENEDY was elected President; James H. SHAW Esq., Vice President; M. B. CULPEPPER Secretary; C. W. Hollowell Treasurer, and Dr. P. JOHN, GEO. W. CHARLES and GEO. D. POOL the Executive Committee. These officers are all active, working men. They mean business and pledge their best efforts to make the Society a success. It is an enterprize in which every profession, every trade, every kind of business,—aye every man, woman and child in the county and surrounding counties is deeply interested. The officers ask and hope to receive the active co-operation of all. Those who have not yet paid in their first instalment—ten per cent on their subscriptions—are earnestly requested to do so no later than Saturday the 29th inst. Mr. Hollowell, the Treasurer, will be in town on that day ready to receive it. Let no one lag behind.

In a recent Card to the public I stated that I could give "Satisfactory Bond," if elected Treasurer of this County. Interested parties have questioned this and even stated that I cannot so bond. To set this matter fully to rest, I beg to refer in justice to myself, to C. W. Hollowell Esq., or to the present chairman of the Board of Commissioners of the County.

These gentlemen know my Bondsmen, and will satisfy any one who may have doubt on this point.

I ask the support of my Party for the following reasons: 1st, I am no new convert for officesake, but have been a consistent Republican from the beginning of the Party in our County—and have never before asked anything at its hands. 2nd I am a poor man—have been too sickly from early boyhood for active work, and now need some light employment for a support.

If elected Treasurer I renew my pledge of fidelity in the discharge of the duties of the office.

A PITIFUL CONDITION.—It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific disease; they suffer no positive pain; but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure. In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food every organ is starved, every function interrupted.

Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two to sink afterward into a more pitiable condition than ever (as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to,) but radically and permanently.

How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question, founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is easily given. Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time by administering temporary remedies, but wake the system up by recuperating the fountain-head of physical strength and energy, the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support.

By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence. Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, fit to be the material of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve and brain, flows through the channels of circulation, instead of the watery pabulum with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

MILLVILLE, FLA., Sept. 21, 1869.

DR. WM. H. TUTT:

Dear Sir—In my young days I was rather wild, and became the victim of a loathsome disease. I was treated by an eminent physician, and thought I was cured. After moving to this State I was horrified at finding that the disease was making its appearance again, in a secondary form. Ulcers formed in my mouth and on different parts of my body. I also became afflicted with severe Rheumatism. I employed different physicians, and used various patent medicines for months, all to no purpose. During a visit to Jacksonville I saw your Sarsaparilla and Queen's Delight, and concluded to try it. I have taken a dozen bottles, and believe that the poison is entirely driven from my system. I intend continuing it, however, to make a sure thing of it. At the request of your Agent, I send this to you. You are at liberty to use it as you like.

YOURS RESPECTFULLY,
JOHN GUILFORD.

LIVER COMPLAINT AND BILIOUSNESS.—Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills exert a direct and powerful influence on the Liver, and will with certainty relieve that important organ from disease, and restore its normal functions.

Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye is Sold Everywhere.

FLAVORING EXTRACTS are of primary importance in cookery; and of all articles of this description the highly concentrated Standard Extracts, prepared by Joseph Burnett & Co., Boston, are pronounced by leading cul-inders—Professor Boy among the number—the purest and best.

HUMAN WRECKS—Every day and hour we meet with broen down specimonts of humanity—wrecks that seem past hope os salvage. At least seved-eighths of these might be filled with new vitality, by a course of Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters. Many are suffering from the reaction of rum-boilluted bitters or powerful minerals. It is characteristic of Dr. Walkers Great Restorative that it neutralizes the effect of these falsecalled remides, and accomplishes, in due time a perfect cure.

NATURE GIVES US TEETH, but she does not preserve and purify them. That must be done with Fragrant Sozodont. The dental bone and its enamel casing are made invulnerable to all destructive influences by the daily use of this benificent preparation.

$50,000 DOLLARS WILL BE PAID for any remedy which will cure Chronic Rheumatism, Pains in the Limbs, Back and Chest, Sore Throat, Insect Stings, Croup, Dysentery, Colic, Sprains and Vomiting, quicker than Dr. Tobias, Venetian Liniment; established in 1847; never fails. Sold by all Druggists. Depot, 56 Park Place, New York.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL—Safest and best illuminating Oil ever made. Does not take fire or explode, if the lamp is upset or broken. Over 150,000 families continues to use it, and no accidents of any description have occured from it. Oil House of Charles Pratt, established 1770, New York.

BEAUTIFUL WHITE, soft smooth, and clear skin is produced by using G. W. Laird's "Bloom of Youth." It removes tan, freckles, sunburns, and all other discolorations from the skin, leavine the complexion brilliant and beautiful. Sold at all druggists. This preparation is entirely free from any material detriment to health.

JUST THE REMEDY NEEDED.—Thanks to Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, we have been relieved from sleepless nights of painful watching with poor, suffering teething children.

FOUTZ'S
CELEBRATED
Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly re-invigorate broken down and low spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, FOUNDER, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite—gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine-looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a sure preventive against Rinderpest, Hollow Horn, etc. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent. and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

AGRICULTURAL, HORTICULTURAL AND DOMESTIC MATTERS.

Why Some People Remain Poor.

Cream is allowed to mould and spoil.

Silver spoons are used to scrape kettles.

The scrubbing brush is left in the water.

Bones are burned that would make soup.

Nice handled knives are thrown into hot water and spoiled.

Dish cloths are thrown where mice can destory them.

Tubs and barrels are left in the sun to dry and fall apart.

Clothes are left on the line to whip to pieces in the wind.

Piecrust is left to sour instead of making a few tarts for tea.

Vegetables are thrown away that would do to warm to breakfast

Dried fruit is not taken care of in season, and becomes wormy.

Bits of meat are thrown out that would make hashed meat or hash

The cork is left out of the molasses jug, and the flies take possession.

Pork spoils for want of salt, and beef because the brine want scalding.

Coffee, tea, pepper and spices are left to stand open and lose their strength.

Potatoes in the cellar grow, and the sprouts are not removed until they become useless.

The bread is sifted in a wasteful manner, and the bread-pan left with the dough sticking to it.

Vinegar is drawn in a tin basin, and allowed to stand till both basin and vinegar are spoiled.

Cold puddings are considered good for nothing, when often they can be steamed for next day.

Fancy Poultry.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever." There is no rural pastime that pays better than keeping fancy fowls. The satisfaction derived from that pursuit by those whose tastes lead that away is immense. It takes long enough to incubate eggs and rear the delicate little creatures they bring forth till the full plumage is reached, to stimtlate a good amount of patience, and continuous effort, but we do not have to wait so long for the objects of our care to reach maturity as in case of quadrupeds, and as the generations of fowls succeed each other with such rapidity, experiments in breeding can be carried out and the results reached without waiting a life time, which is a great advantage. The cultivation of fancy poultry is gaining a wonderful impetus in this country.

Glanders.

Glanders is a disease which is spreading only by contact, either with a glandered horse, or with glandered matter or discharge, deposited on fences, stall posts, mangers, water troughs, harness, &c., If a horse has positively not been nearer than a quarter of a mile to the place where glandered horses are kept, it is not likely that he will get the disease. After contack with a glandered horse, the disease may show itself in less than two weeks, or it may remain dormant in the system for months before any suspicous symptoms may appear, while all this time the presence of such a horse among other horses is certainly a source of great danger and ultimate infection to the whole.

Cut Worms.

An exchange says: It is very anoying after having set out a nice lot of sweet potatoes or cabbage plants, to see them cut down one by one by the cut worms. We have tried ashes, lime, soot, and in fact everything we have heard of, but never found anything effectual, until, by accident, we found three or four of the worms one morning gathered under a small board which had been left by the children on a sweet potato hill. Acting upon this hint, we placed small pieces of boards, large chips, &c., all through the patch, and we entrapped them by hundreds. The boards must be lifted early in the morning, and on very warm days again about noon. A little care for a few days will clear these pests out of the garden. One trial will satisfy any person of the merits of this plan.

In The N. E. Farmer we find an account of an experiment made by a member of the Essex, Mass., Agricultural Society, which was substantially as follows: Four cows were selected from his herd when his pastures were parched with excessive drouth. Two of them were fed night and morning with green corn-stalks, as much as they would eat. The other two were fed with English hay of medium quality, as much as they would eat, all going in the same pasture during the day. Their milk was carefully measured. After about two weeks their feed was changed; those that had been fed on corn were fed with hay, and those that had been fed on hay were fed with corn for about two weeks longer, and the milk carefully measured. The result was nearly the same. There was no perceptible difference in the quantity of milk produced when fed on green corn fodder or English hay. He came to the conclusion, therefore, that it is much more profitable feeding on green corn fodder than on hay, as it costs much less. He adds, however, that corn fodder should not be used until it has nearly reached its growth, in the blossom, as it then possesses more nutriment than when cut earlier. It should not be sowed too thick or grow in the shade.

Coal ashes, which are generally regarded as worthless, may be mixed with hen manure, and will make an excellent compost for corn and other plantings. Sift the coal ashes under the roost, or upon a pile of the manure placed elsewhere. If in the hennery, it will be likely to prevent the hens from becoming lousy.

Bees are exceedingly susceptible of atmospheric changes; even the passage of a heavy cloud over the sun will drive them home; and if an easterly wind prevails, however fine the weather may otherwise be, they have a sort of rheumatic abhorrence of its influence, and abide at home.

The best time for pulling the feathers of the peacock is when he begins to drop them, which ganerally happens in July; never later than August. Pull out one to see if it is ripe. If it is soft and bloody at the end, let him alone; if hard and dry all right,

Top dressing old pastures with a compost made up of such vegetables or peaty matter with lime, to which is added as much bone dust as one can afford, thoroughly worked over and mixed, spread and harrowed in, will make a wonderful difference in the yeld of grass.

An experienced hop cultivator says that on most soils, barnyard manure once in three years, and ashes and plaster every year, will best meet the requirements of the hop crop.

When a couple of young people, strongly attached to each other, commence to eat onions, it is safe to pronounce them engaged.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.

OF VALUABLE

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS,

FOR SALE BY

GEORGE D. POOL.

Real Estate Agent,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalisis and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where and in easy and cheap transportation of products to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the sociability of the people, in great fertility, and durability of soil, no section can equal it.

A railroad will soon be built to Weldon, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States. This, together with our great fishing, farming and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A Steam Saw and Grist Mill in the town of Nixonton 8 miles from E. City. This Mill has a fine wharf and store attached on deep navigable water, the engine is 40 horse power, and all in good order. It is one of the finest locations to be found any where for custom work, and for getting good saw logs easily and cheaply. Price $4,000 cash.

Adjoining the mill property is 40 acres of fine land on the River, with three houses, all for $1200. Near the same is a good two story dwelling and 13 acres of land for $2,000, and a good one story dwelling, with one acre of land for $300.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotauk county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one third cash, balance in one and two years.

Also one other tract in Pasquotank county, containing 116 acres, within one mile of the town with fine buildings, mostly cleared and in cultivation. Price $25 per acre, one half cash, balance in 12 months.

A valuable site for a hotel at Nag's Head, 40 miles from Elizabeth City, and 50 miles from Edenton. This is situated immediately on the Ocean, and is a famous Summer resort for invalids, and those seeking health, comfort, and amusements during the summer months. It is in direct communication by steamboats and railroad with all parts of North Carolina, Virginia, and the North; and is equal in natural advantages to Newport, or Cape May. Visitors flock to this famous summer resort by hundreds and thousands, and a large amount of money can be made by a hotel. A charter has been obtained from the Legislature of N. C., for a joint Stock company to build the hotel. There is now an old hotel on the spot, which could be cheaply repaired and bought for $3,000. This hotel, though imperfectly kept, cleared the proprietor last season, over $3,000. For a man or a company, having some capital, this is one of the finest chances to make money at hotel keeping to be found anywhere. The early attention of the public is invited to this property.

A fine steam saw and grist mill at Hertford, the county seat of Perquimans County, N. C., 18 miles from Elizabeth City. This mill has a fifty horse power engine, now in good running, two pairs of best French burr stones, and two upright saws. The house has a brick basement, and the building is large and in good order. There is one and a half acres of land belonging to this property, and a good two story dwelling, and other out-houses. The section of country adjacent abounds in the finest yellow pine, cypress, ash, poplar, and other valuable timber. This property originally cost $15,000, and is now offered at forced sale for the low price of $3,500, $7.00, cash, and the balance in six equal instalments, six months apart each with interest.

A fine farm and fishery in same county. The farm contains 400 acres of the finest land, lies immediately on Albemarle Sound where the water is 12 miles wide, and 18 to 20 feet deep, has got buildings, and fine neighborhood. The fishery is on the farm and goes with it. It has a new seine 2,500 yards long, and all the necessary boats, buildings, &c., (which cost over $15,000 two years ago.) The fishery alone, of a good season, will make from 5 to $10,000 profit to the owner. This property is offered at forced sale for the low price of $20,000, $7,000 cash, balance on easy times.

A store at South Mills, in Camden county, 20 miles from E. City, and 20 miles from Norfolk, lying on the canal where steamers pass daily. A fine chance for merchandize. Store is large with dwelling above containing six rooms, is in first rate order, has office, kitchen, dairy, and other necessary outhouses. Goods to the amt. of $50,000 per annum can be sold here, and at large profits. A splended stand for a country retail store. Price $2,500—one third cash, balance in one and two years.

A valuable tract of land in Camden county, at South Mills, on the Dismal Swamp Canal, lying on the canal for two miles, containing over 900 acres of land—two-thirds cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation, with good buildings, &c.; balance in valuable timber. Price $12,000, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, interest from January, 1871. This is a valuable farm for corn, wheat, and vegetables, and being midway between Elizabeth City and Norfolk, and located where steamers pass by the door daily, is a desirable and cheap property.

A fine farm of 600 acres within six miles of E. City, one mile from navigable water, and the best cotton farm in the State. It is also well adapted to raising corn and wheat. This farm has a splended two-story dwelling upon it, large barn, 40 by 60 feet, a large number of outhouses, by splended trees and shrubbery, is in a strong Union neighborhood, and altogether the most desirable place in the county. A little over one-half of this land is cleared, and the balance is covered with the finest yellow pine, poplar, ash and other timber. Price $30 per acre—one third cash, balance in one and two years with interest. Title reserved.

Sixteen houses and lots in Elizabeth City, with good dwellings, out-houses, &c. Prices and terms reasonable.

A valuable farm in Perquimans county, N. C. near navigable water. Has a fine dwelling-house with ten rooms, in splended order, with splended barns and stables—all in first rate order. The farm is very productive in corn, oats, wheat, cotton and clover. It is one of the finest farms in the State and is now in good cultivation, contains 585 acres of land, about three-fourths cleared and under cultivation. Price $10,000, one-third cash January 1, next, balance in two equal annual instalments with interest at the rate of six per cent.

A farm of 370 acres 8 miles from town by water, and 12 miles by land, is offered for sale for $10,000 in easy payments. This tract of land lies immediately on the River which is 4 miles wide and washes the farm its whole length on one side, and a branch of the River one mile wide, binds it on one end. The land is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, peas, &c., lies high and dry, and is susceptible of the highest improvement. Fronting and looking over, as it does, two large sheets of navigable water, where steamers and sailing vessels are constantly passing, carrying freight and passengers to all parts of the country, its location and surroundings, are of the most fascinating and desirable character. There is a fishery on it ready for working a seine 2,500 yards long, and which commands a portion of both streams of water, and can be made immensely profitable. The price charged is low, and the purchase a very desirable one. The buildings consist of a good two-story dwelling and out-houses.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smokehouses, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

A Farm of 200 acres within one mile of Elizabeth City, with good two story dwelling, large barn and stables, and all necessary outhouses, orchard of fine fruit trees, and a large number of ornamental trees and shrubbery around dwelling. This farm is on one of the most public roads in the County—is in a high state of cultivation—has fine and durable fences, &c. Altogether, it is the richest land and most desirable location, anywhere in the neighborhood of the town. Price $6000—one-half cash, balance in easy payments.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects. They are not a vile Fuacy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the System in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.
